

NOTICE

The United States District Court for the District of Maryland proposes to reappoint a United States Magistrate Judge.

The term of one of the full-time United States Magistrate Judge positions in Greenbelt, Maryland, currently occupied by Magistrate Judge Jillyn K. Schulze, is due to expire on October 23, 2010. The Court proposes to reappoint the Honorable Jillyn K. Schulze for an additional eight-year term.

Magistrate Judge Schulze performs those duties authorized to be performed by full-time Magistrate Judges, including the conduct of preliminary proceedings in criminal cases; the trial and disposition of misdemeanors and infraction cases; the conduct of various pretrial and evidentiary proceedings; the conduct of mediation/settlement conferences; and trial and disposition of civil cases with the consent of the parties.

Magistrate Judge Schulze hears cases in Greenbelt, Maryland and at several off-site locations throughout the State of Maryland.

The United States District Court for the District of Maryland will establish a selection panel to consider the reappointment of the incumbent.

Comments from members of the bar and the public are invited as to whether the incumbent Magistrate Judge should be recommended by the panel for reappointment by the Court and should be directed to:
