The judges of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland are pleased to announce the fifth biennial Judge Edward S. Northrop Lecture will be held on October 31, 2012. This year's guest lecturer is the Honorable Stephen G. Breyer, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

The lecture will begin at 7:00 p.m. at the United States Courthouse, 6500 Cherrywood Lane, Greenbelt, Maryland. The lecture is open to members of the bar and the public. An open reception will follow Justice Breyer's remarks.

Judge Edward S. Northrop served as a United States District Judge in this Court from 1961 to 2003, including serving as Chief Judge from 1970 to 1981. The United States District Court and the George Washington University Law School established this lecture series in 2004 in memory of Judge Northrop and in recognition of his distinguished service to the court. The lecture is held in alternating years and its past speakers have been Associate Justice Sandra Day O'Connor, United States Supreme Court (2004); Linda Greenhouse, New York Times correspondent (2006); Jeffrey Toobin, CNN senior analyst (2008); and Joan Biskupic, author and journalist (2010).
