MISC. NO. 00-308

STANDING ORDER 2024-01

In order to better maintain the integrity of the docket, it is hereby ORDERED by the United States District Court for the District of Maryland that the Clerk shall issue a deficiency notice for any filed document by a self-represented party that does not conform with certain Federal or Local Rules. The deficiency notice shall state the reason why the filing is deficient and direct the filing party to correct the deficiency within a specified period of time. If the filing party fails to correct the deficiency after the time allowed, the Court may strike the deficient document from the docket, or dismiss the case, without further notice.
