Optima Tax Relief Authorization

By providing debit or credit card information, you acknowledge you are the account holder and authorize OTR to electronically debit funds using the account number you elected to provide in an amount to your scheduled payment amount, on or after the dates that each of your payments are due, by using your debit or credit card information.

Please be advised that you may see a charge of $1.00 on your credit card/ bank statement as a payment verification transaction. This $1.00 payment verification will be immediately voided out by Optima Tax Relief, so you will not actually be charged the $1.00. Typically, the $1.00 transaction may appear on your statement for three to seven business days before it is removed.

This authorization will remain in full force and effect until you notify us that you wish to revoke it. We require at least three (3) days notice to cancel this authorization. You acknowledge that if you revoke your authorization, you are still required to pay us pursuant to your obligation and that you will contact us to make payment arrangements that are suitable to us, in our sole discretion. Should you wish to change your payment plan or should the terms of the Fee(s) be altered at anytime, OTR may allow for you to provide verbal consent to such changes and that shall constitute your formal approval. PLEASE NOTE: If you need to verbally request payment changes, payment methods, or payment dates: contact our Payments Team at (800) 478-5268.

I hereby acknowledge and agree that before Optima Tax Relief (“OTR”) can begin their efforts to investigate my tax matters, I agree to pay all OTR fee(s) with my account set forth above and according to the payment terms outlined in this “Payment Authorization” form.

You authorize OTR to obtain payment via debit or credit card in an amount equal to the scheduled payment amount, on or after the date your payments are due as shown above.

By electronically signing below, you acknowledge that this Payment Authorization inures to the benefit of OTR, its affiliates, agents, employees, successors, and registered assigns. You understand that OTR services are not conditioned on your agreement to pay by electronic debit entries.
